- This is my fourth absence in the past calendar year. I have a sick child, and I am very sick myself. I have served this committee faithfully for the past 4 years in several different capacities. I understand the policy currently reads that this would be a willful resignation from my position. I was there when this policy was changed, and it was mainly put in place because certain people or “persons” weren’t performing their duties for their respective positions. I have a chronic illness, and am immunocompromised, therefore I am unable to predict illness, and much more susceptible to it. I would love to be able to continue serving as our Area’s Webchair, and I will leave it to the committee as to whether or not we can amend that policy, or vote to suspend it in this certain situation. I could understand if I wasn't performing my duties, but that simply isn't the case. Either way, it has been a pleasure and thank you for allowing me to serve.

Welcome Home Report

Welcome Home met on both February 17th and March 9th. We have built a good committee who is working hard to ensure this year's convention is a success. We have had some amazing meeting topics brought to the table by programming. There has been some challenges with last year's venue which has required us to move in the direction of a new venue for this year. We still have our logo and theme contest going on and this will close on April 30th. If anyone is looking to submit an entry these can be given to anyone on the committee or emailed to Welcomehomeccana@gmail.com. our "I ate a Pie and Tie Dye" is still on and we are looking forward to seeing everyone for the fun and fellowship. This will be on March 24th from 1-4 PM at the Cayce Riverwalk Pavillion. Entry to this fundraiser is $10. This will be a no addict turned away event. Our next meeting will be April 6th at 6PM at the Starbucks on Augusta Road.

2408 Augusta Road
West Columbia, SC 29169

If you know anyone looking to get into service then please have them come out and show support to our area's convention.

Thank you for allowing me to serve.
